

Fire in the word: Igniting hearts through preaching

Saturday 6th September at Punchbowl Hall

6:30pm – Coffee & Cake

7:00pm – Workshops

We look forward to an evening of discipleship together.

An evening of sharing and learning to share the true Word of God.

If you were in the Philippines where there are 90 million Roman Catholics, what could you say to get their interest in the true gospel?

What would you say to a Muslim in Indonesia if they asked what you believe?

If you were in Thailand, how would you get the attention of a Buddhist?

What about a Hindu in Nepal, what do we have to offer with the true gospel?

What about your neighbour next door? What would you say to them?

Workshop Leaders: Des Partridge (Catholicism), Adam Byrnes (Hinduism), Peter Walters (Buddhism) and Jason Gilmore (Islam)

The evening will comprise of 4x10-15 minutes mini-workshops where we will learn some basic tips on how to introduce the gospel message if we are talking to people in these religious groups.

It will provide some very practical tips for preaching regardless of where we are.
